Half Chaps Shop Manual

→ Size and length

- Use a soft measuring tape and get someone to help with the reading otherwise your half chaps may end up too short.
- Wear the pants and boots/shoes you like to ride with.
- Measurements should be taken sitting square with your knee bent at 90 degrees and your foot flat on the ground.
- Enter your true measurements. Do not add or subtract on size or length.

a. The size of your calf

Wrap the tape around the biggest part of your calf (do not pull tight) and write down the measurement.

b. The length of your lower leg

Stretch the tape along your lower leg with one end in the crease of your knee and the other on the ground behind your heel and write down the measurement.

→ Styles

Each pair begins with a Classic style made of all Black leather with straps, pull-tab ties and zippers showing. Hardware: Customize your Classic pair by adorning it with conchos and/or studs.

Chrome conchos are 1 inch in diameter with a black leather tassel set on the outside of the knee.

Chrome studs are 1/2 inch in diameter and inserted 1 in. apart along the outside of the leg.

The Flare Bottom flares out (1 1/2 in.). Standard colors are black or red suede

The Fringes Front of the leg bellow the knee. Standard color is black leather

The Flames Outside of the leg from the ground up. Standard colors are black or red suede

Some styles cannot be combined but most can be customized by changing the color of the Flare, the Fringes or Flames (see Custom Color section below)

→ Why the Zipper option

Standard half-chaps are made with the zippers showing in the back. We find it gives them more of a Biker look.

Be advised that the zippers can scratch: - the seat if you get on your bike sliding your leg over from the side; - the saddle bags or side covers if you are a passenger.

To hide the zippers, check the "Hide the zippers" box. If no box is checked, the zippers will show.

→ Custom Color

We can customize the color of some items like the Flare, Flames, Fringes, pull-tabs ties and tassels.

We usually carry the most popular colors and if we don't have the one you want, we should be able to find it.

Custom color work will need to be discussed for accuracy and for price.
